 DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: Local

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill authorizes a members of a volunteer emergency medical association (member) who is responding to a fire or emergency call from absence from political subdivision employment under certain circumstances. The bill specifies that the absence of a political subdivision employee who is a volunteer firefighter responding to a fire or an emergency call or a member who is responding to a call is not a violation of the ghost employment statute and that the supervisor of the employee who has authorized the absence has not committed ghost employment. A private employer of a firefighter or member who is responding to a call may not discipline the firefighter or member from absence from employment under certain circumstances. It allows the private employer to determine if the firefighter or member is considered to be an essential employee. A political subdivision or private employer is not required to pay salary or wages for the time the firefighter or member was absent. It also makes a technical correction.

Effective Date: July 1, 2005.
